RE: Petition for Action On
Cordell McKinley

November 2, 2012

The defendant was arrested on June 20, 2012, in the Middle District of Tennessee, by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives after being charged with Felon in Possession of a Firearm, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1). He appeared before Your Honor on that date, and a detention hearing was scheduled for June 25, 2012; however, it was rescheduled at that time for a later date. As a result, the detention hearing was held on July 5, 2012. The Court released the defendant to pretrial services supervision on that date with special conditions.

Special Conditions of Pretrial Release:

Please reference the attached Order Setting Conditions of Release.

New Violations:

Defendant must not violate any local, state, or federal law :

The defendant was arrested on November 2, 2012, by Nashville Metropolitan Police Department (MNPd) Detectives for Aggravated Robbery. According to the affidavit, on October 6, 2012, officers were dispatched to 1338 Brick Church Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, on a report of a male subject who advised he was robbed at gun point. Upon arrival, officers met with the victim who advised that he was walking on Brick Church Pike when a white Ford sports utility vehicle stopped near the curb. According to the victim, a black male subject exited the passenger side of the vehicle and the subject produced a handgun. He then stated "Give me what you got". The victim complied and the subject took his cellular phone and fled the scene in the vehicle. The victim telephoned police and filed a report. The victim contacted his cellular carrier and ordered a replacement phone with the same number. After receiving and activating the new phone, the victim began receiving calls from persons asking to speak with "Cordell". The victim then discovered that when he activated his new phone, the call history transferred to the new phone as well as the internet search history. An MNPd Detective was contacted and viewed the information in the phone at the victim's request. He discovered that a male subject named Cordell J. McKinley had logged onto his personal Facebook account using the victim's phone. Upon viewing the photographs on the account, the victim advised the detective that the person in the photograph was the subject who robbed him at gun point, and had taken his phone. All of the data was saved in the phone.

It should also be noted that MNPD officers attempted to locate the defendant at his uncle's residence, Michael Bond, who is also the defendant's third party custodian; however, Mr. Bond advised the officers that Mr. McKinley had not been at the residence for several days, and he was unaware of his whereabouts. Mr. Bond also did not contact this officer to advise of this information.

Respectfully Petition the Court as Follows:

The Pretrial Services Office requests that a warrant be issued for the defendant's arrest, and further recommends that, due to the seriousness of the new arrest, the defendant's bond be revoked.
